

This map displays the administrative divisions and geographical features of the Ourchita region in Georgia. The map is color-coded by administrative district: orange for the northern and eastern parts, purple for the western part, and green for the southern part. Major roads are marked with numbers in blue circles. The city of Ourchita is centrally located, surrounded by various districts and villages. The map also shows the coastline and surrounding water bodies.