Describe the Nature of Your Message VOTING RIGHTS

Type your message here I am disappointed and disgusted, but not surprised, by the current legislative actions regarding voting rights in Louisiana. The decisions taken reflect an anachronistic approach to governing that purposely ignores the population diversity in this state. They demonstrate the wish and will to retain Jim Crow principles that demean our citizens and reflect poorly on the state legislature, and securely affix Louisiana with the othersimilarly racist state legislatures around the country. I would not be surprised if David Duke were to reappear and manage to join the current lot of morons (remember, you would be in good company in this vein with the former President] as an elected member.
